Dr. Katharine Wilkinson, D.Phil., is Senior Writer at Project Drawdown, where she did much of the research and writing for the bestselling book by Paul Hawken: Drawdown which focuses on practical plans to reverse global warming. She has worked with several major sustainability consultants and the Natural Resources Defense Council. Katharine is also the author of the book Between God & Green: How Evangelicals Are Cultivating a Middle Ground on Climate Change (OUP 2012). She obtained her PhD from Oxford University as a Rhodes scholar and a BA in Religion from Sewanee: The University of the South where she received a Udall scholarship.

Refreshments are served at 3pm prior to the lecture.
There is paid parking in the 6th street garage or at nearby parking meters.